

FEATURED SESSIONS

WACE's 9th International Symposium, in Celebration of Georgia Tech's Co-op Centennial, Will Feature the Following Keynote, Plenary Sessions, Papers, Roundtable Discussions & Workshops on Cooperative & Work-Integrated Education (CWIE), and Special Events

KEYNOTE

Mr. John Brock, CEO & Chairman of Coca-Cola Enterprises, discussing Talent Acquisition & the Important Role of CWIE.

PLENARIES

"A Dialogue with Industry Executives: Assessing the Benefits of CWIE"

"Assessment of CWIE: Developing a Corporate Feedback System for Use in Curricular Reform"

Global Panel of Engineering Deans Discussing the Future of CWIE

"Young Yellow Jackets: Georgia Tech Alums Assess their Co-op Experiences"

"Assessing CWIE: Models, Methods & Metrics"

PAPERS

"An Assessment of Hospitality Management Students' Experiences of Work-Integrated Learning (WIL): The Case of Walter Sisulu University in South Africa"

"Innovative Cooperative & Work-Integrated Education (CWIE): Corporate Social Responsibility for Economic Sustainability"

"Learning for Work and Professional Development: The Significance of Informal Learning for Professionals in Australia's Digital Media Industry"

"One 'Helluva' Program: Taking Cooperative & Work-Integrated Education into the Next Millennium at Georgia Institute of Technology"

"The International Telematic University UNINETTUNO"

ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION / ACADEMIC SALON

"Engaged Newcastle: A New Model for Community-Based Learning"

WORKSHOPS

"Cooperative & Work-Integrated Education Research Workshop"

"Designing an Inter-professional Leadership Program: Using a Cooperative & Work-Integrated Educational Approach"

POSTERS

"Assessing Our Past and Assuring Our Future in Walter Sisulu University Hospitality Work-Integrated Learning"

"Learning Film Production"

SPECIAL EVENTS

Opening Reception

World of Coca-Cola Tour & Reception

Georgia Tech Student Performance