

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Section I: Theoretical Background and Development of Cooperative and Work-Integrated Education

Preface

Richard K. Coll, Karsten E. Zegwaard	vii
1 Cooperative and work-integrated education in the US, past and present: Some lessons learned E. Sam Sovilla, James W. Varty	3
2 Towards a definition and models of practice for cooperative and work- integrated education Thomas Groenewald, Maureen Drysdale, Caitlin Chiupka, Nancy Johnston	17
3 Cooperative and work-integrated education as a pedagogy for lifelong learning Stephen Billett, Sarojni Choy	25
4 Theories of learning in education Geraldine Van Gyn, Elizabeth Grove-White	31
5 Theories of learning in cooperative and work-integrated education Chris Eames, Cheryl Cates	41
6 The assessment of student learning in cooperative and work-integrated education Dave Hodges	53
7 Program assessment in cooperative and work-integrated education Kettil Cedercreutz, Cheryl Cates	63
8 Research in cooperative and work-integrated education Kenneth R. Bartkus, Joy Higgs	73
9 A scientific approach to research design and quality in cooperative and work-integrated education Maureen Drysdale, Kristina Johansson	85

Section II: The Practice of Cooperative and Work-Integrated Education

10 Cooperative and work-integrated education in science Karsten E. Zegwaard, Robert L. Laslett	101
11 Cooperative and work-integrated education in engineering Anita M. Todd, Mark Lay	111
12 Cooperative and work-integrated education in international agribusiness Susan M. McCurdy, Bill Barwood	123

13	Cooperative and work-integrated education in psychology Patricia L. Linn, Kacea Pollard-Johnson	133
14	Cooperative and work-integrated education in information technology Tony Clear, Gwyn Claxton, Simon Thompson, Sally Fincher	141
15	Cooperative and work-integrated education in medicine Wayne de Beer	151
16	Cooperative and work-integrated education in environmental health Louise Dunn, Thomas Tenkate	157
17	Cooperative and work-integrated education in nursing Laurie Grealish, Sharon Stunder	165
18	Cooperative and work-integrated education in business Katharine Hoskyn, Andrew Martin	173
19	Cooperative and work-integrated education in sport studies Jenny Fleming, Lesley Ferkins	179
20	Cooperative and work-integrated education in liberal arts James R. Stellar, Richard Porter	189
21	Cooperative and work-integrated education in journalism studies Ruth Thomas, Nicola Goc	199
22	Cooperative and work-integrated education in teacher education Beverley Cooper, Neil Taylor	207
23	Cooperative and work-integrated education in hospitality and tourism Leanne Baker, Julia Caldicott, Jane Spowart	219
24	Cooperative and work-integrated education in criminology Merrelyn Bates, Neil Madu	229
25	Cooperative and work-integrated education in police education Matthew Campbell, Sofia Nyström	237
26	Cooperative and work-integrated education in social work Lesley Cooper	243
27	Cooperative and work-integrated education in English as an additional language T. Pascal Brown, David Cooke	249

Section III:

The Benefits of Cooperative and Work-Integrated Education

28	Benefits of cooperative and work-integrated education for students Sheri Dressler, Ann E. Keeling	261
29	Benefits of cooperative and work-integrated education for employers Lori A. Braunstein, Hideki Takei, Fen Wang, Mark K. Loken	277

- 30 Benefits of cooperative and work-integrated education for educational institutions 287
Stephen Crump, Mary C. Johnsson

Section IV: Current Issues, and The Future of Cooperative and Work-Integrated Education

- 31 The integration of knowledge in cooperative and work-integrated education programs 297
Richard K. Coll, Karsten E. Zegwaard
- 32 Curriculum and curricular orientations in cooperative and work-integrated education 305
Nancy Johnston
- 33 The role of cooperative and work-integrated education in graduate transition into the workforce 313
Philip D. Gardner, April L. Perry
- 34 Cooperative and work-integrated education and Indigenous peoples 321
Alison Reedy, Deborah Prescott, Wendy Giles
- 35 Cooperative and work-integrated education in graduate programs 331
Patricia M. Rowe
- 36 Administering cooperative and work-integrated education programs 337
Freyda C. Lazarus, Helen C. Oloroso, Sharleen Howison
- 37 Enhancing cultural intelligence through cooperative and work-integrated education 347
Norah McRae, Karima Ramji
- 38 Cooperative and work-integrated education in emerging economies 355
Susanne Taylor
- 39 Ethical considerations and workplace values in cooperative and work-integrated education 363
Matthew Campbell, Karsten E. Zegwaard
- 40 Establishing a new nationwide network for promoting cooperative and work-integrated education 371
Carol-Joy Patrick, Judie Kay
- 41 WACE, the global network of networks: Advancing cooperative and work-integrated education 381
Michelle Hansford, Paul Stonely
- 42 The state of the art and future issues for cooperative and work-integrated education 387
Richard K. Coll, Karsten E. Zegwaard

